School in Ghana Project 2025/2026: Following the successful appeal for beds, chairs, fridge, sink and wheelchairs for the Community Health Clinic in Ghana, the Telford Circuit would like to help with the school. There are pictures and a letter explaining the project on the notice board. We are hoping to raise £6,500. Instead of our usual Easter Offering, there will be a plate at the back of Church for those who wish to donate to this appeal.

We apologise for there being no Easter Magazine but we only had one contribution and couldn't go to print with so little content. Below are a couple of items that were submitted.

*Signposts – The After School Club runs on Thursdays 3:30 - 4:45pm led by Jo Bentham and Bev Holden plus other helpers. We have a faithful group of children attending and we are pleased with their enthusiasm.

Children and Young People

Thank you to those of you at Trinity who volunteer willingly to be on the Creche Rota. There are always some people (two) and something available each Sunday for whoever might come along.

Please pray for this mission and Holiday Club which is happening in the first week of the school summer holidays, July 20th – 24th . Paul Willmott is leading us once more.

*Monthly Prayer Meetings for Newport continue at Newport Baptist Church on the first Monday of the month except the April one which would be Easter Monday and so is changed to March 30th. The meetings are 9:30am – 10:30am. All are welcome.

DAFFODILS IN THE ROCKS

O rocks which did a million years
Presumed in strength to hold thy sway
Against the press of stone and time
Content to outlast the human span,
Yet here within your walls of might,
Your power is overcome by light

Smooth you become with rolling time,
Yet others jag the hand and limb,
Compress the earth, subdue it all,
Presuming naught can overpower,
Yet there beneath your craggy shape,
A sight divine, a golden drape.

The trumpeting of reborn spring,
Breaks forth her gentle form
To grow where man dare not,
Unbashed by strength and power,
Beneath bold rock it's shoot appears,
Weakling stems subdue the years.

How come you rocks, so vain, so proud,
With strength borne in ice cold age,
Can scarce resist the bloom,
Which in its weakness shows a face
Confronts and beats a crushing power
Victorious heralding springtime flower

And at this Easter time again
Can we not see a parable,
Of darkness and the villainy of man
Who took as flower most beautiful,
Dared to believe that stone might hide
A Lord who conquers man's false pride

The weakly springtime sun
Again reminds of Easter's lore
Of fooling deadness on a cross
And selfish power of Jew and Rome
Of age old rocks burying human frail
Could scarce contain a lord forlorn
In whose weakness, strength was born.
